

Good public affairs in 2015

20th January 2015

1. General election outcome
2. Big political challenges of 2015
3. Considerations for good public affairs this year

1. General election outcome
2. Big political challenges of 2015
3. Considerations for good public affairs this year

What we really need to prepare for...

Fragmentation of political support & what it means for political process

1. General election outcome
2. Big political challenges of 2015
3. Considerations for good public affairs this year

1. Agreeing to govern.
2. A second election?
3. Tackling the big policy challenges.

1. General election outcome
2. Big political challenges of 2015
3. Considerations for good public affairs this year

Considerations for good public affairs this year

1. Understanding how big decisions will be made in a multi-party system

Considerations for good public affairs this year

2. The power of parliament increases

Considerations for good public affairs this year

3. The civil service become more influential

4. Stakeholder lobbying will make a bigger difference to decision-making.

5. Power structures in government and established parties will shift.

TIME for change

Any questions?